

I love my XM and hope you do nothing that stands in the way of their busienss and success. It's about time the radio broadcasting industry had some fair compitition.